When Chris was nearly killed by Ace Merrill, Vern and Teddy went away. Such behaviour to a friend is shameful. However, Gordie didn't care about his own safety, he stayed with Chris to support him. That's what a friend should do. I can see the selfishness of Teddy and Vern but also the loyalty between Chris and Gordie.

I knew my best friend, Heidi, in kindergarten. Although we haven't kept in touch now, she is always my best friend in my heart. In kindergarten, she and I were the tallest and the most popular girls in the class. We studied, played, did all the things together, even going to toilet.

Heidi and I lived in the same block. So we visited each other very often. We shared all our things, Barbie dolls, pictures... and also our thoughts and secrets. Till now, I remember every single thing she did, and every single word she said. I miss her, and I will treasure this friendship for ever and ever.
